DECLARATION PROCESS

LOCAL EMERGENCY MANAGERS RESPOND

- If local resources are exhausted:
 - County officials can declare a local state of emergency
 - County officials can request assistance from the State

STATE RESOURCES DEPLOYED

- If state resources are exhausted:
 - Governor declares a state of emergency
 - Governor requests assistance from federal government using Preliminary Damage Assessments (PDA) for a Presidential Major Disaster or Emergency Declaration

FEDERAL RESOURCES DEPLOYED

- President issues a Major Disaster or an Emergency Declaration

Emergency
Management

YOUR ROLE

Meet with your EM team:

- Don't wait for a disaster to know your role
- Visit your Emergency Operations Center (EOC)
- Learn of hazards that threaten your jurisdiction
- Learn what is being done to mitigate hazards
- Understand the limitations of your disaster program

YOUR ROLE

Understand your response processes:

- ✓ Know key stakeholders and their roles;
- ✓ Know who's in charge;
- ✓ Know response priorities;
- ✓ Understand local State of Emergency;
- ✓ Understand the possibility of financial liability

Disasters Don't Plan Ahead. YOU CAN.

- Make planning for disasters a priority for all levels of your organization
- Encourage your entire organization to coordinate and collaborate with your EM program
- Encourage your constituents to be prepared at every opportunity
- Encourage your businesses to be prepared

Reinforce EM officials actions:

- Assist with declarations → ensure the damage assessment process is completed
- Consistent messages:
 - Reinforce protective actions;
 - Reinforce public information.
- Collaborate with County EOC.

Set the tone for your community

- Help constituents understand that recovery can be a draining process that takes time....

Patience
