Executive Director Richard Radcliffe mentioned that if any elected official is interested in joining an FLC Policy Committee the sign-up is still available. Next, he goes onto announce that the League will not be having the annual Holiday Networking Event (formerly known as the Tri-City BBQ) this year. Instead the League will be working in conjunction with Palm Tran with their holiday Stuff-the-bus event this year. Then, he mentions the upcoming FLC Legislative Conference on November 12th-13th. Finally, he mentioned the NLC's annual city summit that will be held virtually on November 18th-20th.

8. Presentation (s).....

a. Covid-19: “Where We’ve Been and Where We’re Going”

Dr. Alina Alonso, Director, Florida Department of Health in Palm Beach County

Dr. Alina Alonso begun her presentation by highlighting the current status of the state & Palm Beach County in regards to Covid-19. Next, she mentioned the decrease within the positivity rate for the county and commends the municipalities and Covid compliance team for their hard work in educating residents. Then, she informed membership that although Covid has not left yet we must continue to take precaution and as flu season approaches don’t forget to get flu shots. Finally, she advised membership that once everyone practices social distancing, wear masks and follow the CDC guidelines then we may be able to keep the Covid positivity rate down in the county.

A brief Q & A segment took place after Dr. Alonso’s presentation.

Executive Director completed the general membership roll call.
